IDAHO GEM CEREMONY

Honored Queen: Will the individuals who are to receive the Idaho Gem Award please rise and step to the sidelines. Guide and Marshal, you will escort these people who are to receive the Idaho Gem Award to the West line.

Guide and Marshal leave their stations and turn left or right and proceed to the North and South marching lines. Turn east on the north and south marching lines. Proceed to the East. Pick up the individuals from east to west and return to the West line. Turn right or left and proceed to a point West of the 5th messengers chair, face West take two steps to the West and turn left or right and proceed toward the North and South Marching lines. When the individuals are centered west of the 5th Messenger stop and face east.

Guide: Honored Queen, I have the honor of presenting _____, who is (are) entitled to receive the Idaho Gem Award. Honored Queen rises.

Honored Queen: Your time, service and dedication to Job's Daughters International is a gift that is more precious than gold. Time is the most valuable gift a man or woman can spend with someone. Time is the teacher of all things. Service and dedication to God, country, family and friends has found for you a place in history. You are a rare Gem that has brightened our world. Guide and Marshal, you will conduct the Idaho Gem Recipients East of the altar.

Guide turns South and proceeds to the South marching line. Turns East and proceeds to the altar line, turns North on the altar line and centers the individuals facing the altar.

Guide: First Messenger, You will begin our tribute.

First messenger rises and walks to the middle of the Semi circle like in initiation.

First Messenger: Very few perfect Gems are found in nature. By patiently rubbing away at the rough edges a form begins to take shape that is the foundation for things to come. Returns to station (initiation)

Guide: Second messenger, you will continue our tribute.

Second messenger rises and angles to the middle of the Semi circle like in initiation.

Second Messenger: With gentle hands, the Gem smith begins to form and shape the stone until it begins to reflect the hidden beauty that it hides. Returns to station (initiation)

Guide: Third Messenger, you will reflect on the beauty of this tribute.

Third messenger rises and walks to the middle of the Semi circle like in initiation.

Third Messenger: Each tap of his tool must be carefully placed. He has faith that his hand will be guided to the exact place that it needs to be, for with one slip the beautiful gem would be gone forever and he must begin again. Returns to station (initiation)

Guide: Fourth Messenger, you will remind the recipients of our virtues.

Fourth Messenger rises and angles to the middle of the Semi circle like in initiation.

Fourth Messenger: His hand is steady and he has reaped the rewards of his patience and faith. A beautiful Gem glistens in his hand waiting for the final polishing. Returns to station (initiation)

Guide: Fifth Messenger, you will complete this tribute.

Fifth messenger rises and walks to the middle of the Semi circle like in initiation.

Fifth Messenger: You my friends are the rough stone(s), hewn and polished to a beautiful Gem. You are the patient teacher, the faithful servant, the recipient of a carefully cut and polished gem. You are more precious than Gold.

Guide and Marshal, you will conduct these Idaho Gems to the Honored Queen. Returns to station (initiation)

Guide faces North. Proceeds to the North marching line, turns East and proceeds to the East marching line. Turns South on the East marching line. Center the individuals on the East marching line facing the Honored Queen.

Guide: Honored Queen, these precious Gems are ready for your final words. Honored Queen rises.

Honored Queen: Junior Princess, you will present these Gems with your gift. Honored Queen is seated and Jr Princess rises.

Junior Princess: I present you with this certificate of Achievement. It may only look like a piece of paper but the same hands that formed the precious stone, also touched it. Jr. Princess leaves the East and presents each recipient with a certificate. She then returns to her station.

Honored Queen rises

Honored Queen: Senior Princess, you will present these Gems with your gift. HQ is seated.

Sr. Princess rises

Senior Princess: I present you with this rose whose delicate beauty was created by the same hand who created the uncut stone. May it remind you of the fragile nature of life and the part you played in inspiring others. Sr. Princess leaves the east and presents each recipient with a rose. She then returns to her station.

Honored Queen rises.

Honored Queen: I now present you with the Idaho Gem Medallion. On the medallion you will find a polished gemstone. Remember that it was once rough but with patient and careful handling it was changed into a rare beauty. No two stone are exactly alike. Each one of you has given of yourself for the benefit of countless Daughters and Job's Daughters International. We thank you for your gift. Wear your medallion with pride.

HQ leaves the East and presents each of the recipients with their medallion. She then returns to her station.

Honored Queen: You will now face West.

Honored Queen: I have the pleasure of presenting our Idaho Gems. Please join with me in giving them a hearty welcome.

Honored Queen: Guide and Marshal you will escort these Idaho Gem Recipients to the sidelines and then return to your stations.

Guide and Marshal take one step to the West and come to the center of the group. Face East and make a slight bow. Face West and march to the altar line. Turn North or South and proceed to the North or South marching line. Turn and face the recipients and nod to each. When all are seated, face West and proceed to your stations.
